Qualifications

Curriculum & Calendar

AES offers a rigorous college preparatory program which includes the International Baccalaureate Diploma and Advanced Placement options. Enrollment in the IB program and AP classes is open to all students. Students may not exceed three HL or AP courses (or combinations thereof) in a school year. The academic year is divided into two semesters beginning mid-August and mid-January respectively. Maximum class size is 21. First semester grades are available after January 22.

Graduation Requirements

Students must complete a minimum of 23 credits to graduate. Specific credit requirements are:

- English ●●●● (4 credits)
- Social Studies ●●● (3 credits)
- Mathematics ●●● (3 credits)
- Science ●● (2 credits)
- World Language ●● (2 credits)
- Physical Education ●● (1.5 credits)
- Health ● (0.5 credits)
- Fine Arts ●● (1.5 credits)

An additional graduation requirement is our compulsory five-day Minicourse each year. Courses take place throughout India and include environmental stewardship, community service, cultural immersion, and wilderness adventure.

Application Limit

Grade 12 students are limited to ten college applications. Colleges and universities receiving an application from AES can be assured that the student is a serious applicant.

Community Service

AES' motto, "Enter to Learn, Leave to Serve," is actively upheld by the work of the student-led Service Council and 18 community service clubs. AES service clubs work with local children, impoverished communities, human and animal rights, and environmental concerns.

5	3.07 - 2.20	15

Policy on Class Rank

Due to the small class size and the academic, linguistic, and educational diversity of our transient and international student body, AES does not rank students. The weighted GPA distribution for the Grade 12 class is based on coursework completed at AES. Students who joined AES in their senior year are not included in this breakdown.

AP/IB Results

AES has an open enrollment policy for students wishing to take AP or IB courses or the full IB Diploma.
